

International Mini-MBA Program

Our most comprehensive management development program covering everything having to do with leadership and general management. Thanks to its high application potential and intensive practical focus, this is an ideal development program – and not just for those with extensive background in business administration. 4 × 4 days.

DESCRIPTION

How can you become a successful manager? Even if success can only be planned to a certain degree, the foundation for this can certainly be created. Besides expertise and personal commitment, solid leadership and management skills are what make the difference. Only if you can lead, will you be able to effectively realize your concepts and plans and make decisions that achieve results. And if you can plan well, make concept-based, result-oriented decisions, you can lead well too. The goal of this multi-seminar program is to optimize your leadership skills and to teach you everything you need to know about the principles of modern general management including strategy, finance and marketing.

STRUCTURE

The International Mini-MBA Program consists of four modules:

Module 1: Leadership and People Skills – Self-management, social skills, leading employees as the starting point for management success. 4 days

Module 2: Strategic Management and Implementation – Methods and tools for strategic management and its application. 4 days

Module 3: Marketing – the relationship between market position, customer benefits and market success. 4 days

Module 4: Financial Management – the most important aspects of finance and accounting. 4 days

The order in that the modules are held might vary.
