

Achieving Impact Through Communication & Presence

You already have proven skills at being persuasive and are confident when communicating and negotiating. Take them to the next level in this program. 2 x 3 days.

DESCRIPTION

Every company has them and a lot of executives see themselves in these people – employees who have brilliant ideas and thoughts, but who are unable to «sell» them because they have no support within the company. Most of the time, they are not convincing enough and lack the skills and the confidence for persuasive argumentation, which is the basis for leading meetings or conducting negotiations successfully. In this 2 x 3-day program, you will work on exactly these things and afterwards, you'll return to work with a much larger repertoire of skills to make you even more persuasive. And you will benefit from the neutral, constructive feedback you'll get during the training, feedback that you seldom get at your place of work.

- Practitioners and ambitious specialists who want to practice their skills to be even more confident and persuasive at work
- Professionals and managers who want to develop their skills at handling leadership challenges even better

All participants should place high value on being able to implement what they learn quickly and effectively. Since the number of participants per group is limited, we recommend registering as early as possible.
